

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Greater Orlando Builders Association
2016 Parade of Homes™ Winners Announced

ORLANDO, FL (April 22, 2016) – Central Florida’s annual Parade of Homes™ showcase event, presented by the Greater Orlando Builders Association (formerly the HBA of Metro Orlando), and Randy Suggs, Inc. spanned over two weekends this year on April 2nd and 3rd, as well as April 9th & 10th. Forty Seven (47) of Orlando’s best homebuilders, developers and remodelers participated in this 50-year-long Parade of Homes tradition with a total of ninety seven (97) entries available for the public to tour and view.

Every year the Greater Orlando Builders Association (GOBA) provides the Central Florida community with the exciting opportunity to learn about the latest trends in home design, advanced technology in energy efficiency, and innovative practices for green building applications at the Parade of Homes™ showcase event. Residents getting ready to make a move on home remodeling or move into their newly constructed dream home had the opportunity to see Orlando’s best craftsmanship in cabinetry and flooring, innovative custom homes, home design and inspiring transformations in remodels. Attendees also enjoyed the exclusive opportunity to experience the annually awarded showcase home, first-hand. This year’s showcase home was the spectacular Lucerne II, a waterfront gem located at Waterside in Winter Garden and constructed by CalAtlantic Homes.

In addition to being available to the public for tour and viewing, an important element of the Parade of Homes™ is the judging process. All of the Parade of Homes™ entries are categorized by type; Remodel, Community, Production Single Family, Production Multi Family, Custom and Design Specialty Showcase, and then by price. Each entry is then painstakingly and critically judged on quality of craftsmanship, products used, architectural design and much more, by over 40 building professionals from around the state of Florida and the Southeast. On Thursday, April 21st, the winners in each category were celebrated at an Awards Ceremony held at the Doubletree by Hilton - Downtown Orlando.

The Greater Orlando Builders Association is pleased to announce the winners of the 2016 Parade of Homes™.
